

2019 Kirkland Signature Saint-Julien Bordeaux

Our list begins back in January, when we were surprised and delighted to see this new addition to the Kirkland wine portfolio, a Saint Julien Bordeaux for $18.69. We just heard the other day that the 2020 vintage is hitting stores now, and we hope to review soon. [our review]

2020 My Favorite Neighbor Cabernet Sauvignon

This next one might be our wine of the year. We went 95 points. This bottle was $45.99 at Costco and drinks like it cost 2-3X that. What a find, and a consistent favorite of ours. Seek this bottle out wherever you can find it. [our review]

2010 Hidalgo Tradicion H Gran Reserva Rioja

As we said in our review, this seemed almost too good to be true, and readers went crazy for this wine as well. A Gran Reserva Rioja with 13 years of age built in for $14.99. A top notch Costco find in 2023. [our review]

2021 Tabali Talinay Sauvignon Blanc

This Chilean Sauvignon Blanc totally surprised us. Highly rated, and $22 at Costco, this is one of the more memorable Costco white wines we tasted this year. Hope to see it return again in future vintages. [our review]

2015 Bodegas Olarra Añares Gran Reserva Rioja

Yes, another Gran Reserva Rioja, and we are of course huge fans of this style of wine, but bang for buck you can put these up against almost anything. $16 at Costco, and 92 points from us. [our review]

2020 Claude Manciai Courtelong Pouilly-Fuisse

This White Burgundy was delicious, and Costco brought it in at $18.99 vs a retail we found in the $30-$40 range, so a huge score. This is high quality French Chardonnay at an unbeatable price. [our review]

2019 Condado de Haza Crianza Ribera del Duero

It's starting to look like a theme here, with all these Spanish bottles, but we continue to find excellent wines at great prices. 92 points from us on this $15 Ribera del Duero that is flat out amazing. Don't hesitate to explore more Spanish wines. [our review]

2019 Kirkland Signature Barolo

Pretty sure this bottle has made this list the past three years, ever since it arrived in Costco stores. The price continues to stay the same at $20, and it just overdelivers once again. These sell through fast, so be ready to scoop them up when you see them, usually in June. [our review]

2020 Chateau de Vaudieu Chateauf-neuf-du-pape

A $30 Chateauf-neuf that delivered the goods, this was a fantastic find. 93-94 points from most critics, and a 93 from us, this is a bottle we'll seek out in future vintages. [our review]

2017 Condado de Oriza Ribera del Duero Reserva

Only in doing this list are we remembering just how many Spanish wines from Costco we went crazy for in the past 12 months. Here's another Ribera, only $12.99 at Costco, and so so good. 92 points from us. [our review]

2019 Chateau Gloria Saint Julien Bordeaux

And we conclude this list with a heck of a find. This is a favorite Bordeaux of ours that consistently delivers, and we were stunned when it showed up at Costco for $34.99. At Total Wine this same bottle is selling for $55. It needs a little more time in the bottle, but shows huge promise. [our review]
